Generate reviews. Increase engagement. Drive traffic.

Birdeye is an all-in-one automated platform that manages your online business reputation, generates new reviews, and enables you to interact and attract new customers for your business.

Turn customer reviews into your competitive edge

Get new reviews, manage them and promote them across the web for 1, 10 or 10,000 locations. All from one dashboard.

The power of Google behind every review

Get more customer reviews on Google by leveraging Birdeye's direct integration with Google's private API.

Get more customer reviews automatically

Collecting new reviews has never been easier. Birdeye sends customers to top review sites to share their feedback.

Monitor all your reviews in one place

Access all your customer reviews, for every location, from every source, in one dashboard.

Online reputation management made easy

Take control of your brand and solve customer issues by managing all your reviews in one place.
